

teen camps

For students ages 10-16

Work with clay to create your own forms. We offer three sessions. The first two are four-week sessions where you pick the two days a week you would like to attend. We know you're busy, so you choose the two days — M, T, W or Th — that work best for you, from 3-5pm.

- June 11 - July 5
- July 9 - August 2

The third session is an intensive two-week program, where students attend Mon — Thurs for two weeks.

- August 6 - August 16 (Two-week intensive)

PRICING*

$250 per session

Registrations are required, will be honored on a "first come/first-served" basis and are appreciated two weeks in advance of any camp. We kindly ask that all payments are made at time of registration. We can accommodate missed sessions and vacation schedules with make-up classes and pro-rated pricing.

Discounts offered for multiple camps and sibling registrations: 10% for two or more teen camp sessions when registered at the same time. Price includes instruction, all projects, materials and firing fees.*

The curriculum includes:

Pinch pots, slabs and coils

Basic form and hand building techniques, handles and additions

Centering and cylinders

Basic wheel throwing, hollow forms and slip trailing

Altering the cylinder

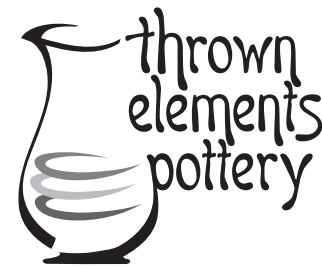

Altering shapes and mastering lid making

Glazing

Dipping, layering of color, wax resist and sgraffito

Camps at Thrown Elements Pottery are fun, energetic, artistic and experiential outlets for children ages 5-16. Each session focuses on different age-appropriate projects and teaches new skills based on a theme. Sign up for as many sessions as you'd like — there's always something new and exciting!
